BUDDING OUT:

Joseph M Lee III of 1444 Iroquois Path N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30319 has sent copies of several documents for the GSV Archives relating to the FERRIN-FLETCHER-KENYON families. The FERRIN documents were compiled by Dr Orlin Kenyon FLETCHER (b VT 1873 d Ga 1937) whose paternal grandmother was Rachel FERRIN. Rachel was the sister of Dr Chester Manning FERRIN (b VT 1837 d VT 1932). Mr Lee would be pleased to hear from anyone researching any of these families.

In the Vol 3 #2 (Spring) issue p 42 we asked about people born out of wedlock or adopted children. So far we've had 2 answers. The 1st from Mrs Dorothy Tucker, 829 Wilson St, Manitowoc Wisc. 54220. At the risk of bringing a storm upon my head from the purists, my very strong feeling are that a child who is born by chance without the usual legally organized family relationship has an inalienable right to belong somewhere, and that is, with the family he grows up with.

So much of what we become depends upon the opportunity and stimulation provided by our environment, that even though we may not be the blood child of someone who raises us, we are that person's child nevertheless.

In my family history gathering and writing up, I am not making note of those persons I know of who have adoption proceedings as their way of coming in to the family. There are some in my family who were born in wedlock but left orphaned at an early age, some that I assume may have been born to unmarried parents.

My convictions about including legally or emotionally adopted children in the family tree, without making any note which separates them in any way from those born in wedlock, comes out of a number of yrs as a social worker, some of those years in child welfare work, and the last 14 in a mental health center. We all need to belong somewhere, and to feel that a family belongs to us. We would have a healthier, stronger, better-operating country and society if we did not have so many persons who feel alienated from society and are trying to get even with society, or garner up power to make up for empty spots in our feelings of self-worth.

A 2nd letter on the subject came from Mrs Julia M. Greene, 2038 Highland Ave, Wilmette Ill. 60091 who says: A lot of people will be interested in information on how to get parent or parents of illegitimate births - Considering that the 'cities' were much smaller in the old days, considering that everyone in the town knew about these "carry-ings-on", it is simply appalling that any such evidence is so completely covered. In looking for one, I find the cemetery plot map has 3 'no name' plots. the cemetery itself has 3 field rock markers with, of course no marking on them. It has always seemed pretty sad that even in death, they could receive no recognition of the love they must have given to the child. Since there were 2 older cemeteries in the town, it is probably so that their parents were from the town. Would it have been so degrading to the living to have marked these graves 'Mother'? Poor gals - they are buried close to outside fences - eternal payment - most resemblant of the situation of our friend whose grave was dug on a slant from inside the cemetery but whose bones reside outside the fence.

Mrs Greene also writes that as an added bit of information, you might be interested to know that future genealogists will have another problem - illegal marriages. Some lawyers are putting through records of marriages which do not in actuality take place. This, of course, is to give the unborn child a father's name. There seems to be, fairly soon after, a record of divorce also put through. Sometimes the 'marriages' are to hit or miss names, and sometimes they are actual men who never do learn that they have been recorded as fathers who have a record of marriage and divorce. However a friend of mine who is a lawyer says he had a difficult time proving a client of his never did marry a girl and could not have fathered her child - seems she was suing for child support and alimony!!

Mrs Marion Springer #817, works in the STEUBEN NY County Clerk's office and would be willing to do reasonable searching of the available records for our members enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Her address is 15 Fairview Drive, Bath, New York 14810

Mrs Wilbur L Swift, 1235 E. Lynn Drive, Waukesha, Wisc 53186, will search the HAKES, PREVOST, PREVOOST genealogy for a SASE.

I am doing all of the women on the "Putnam" "Stevens" and "Nourse" lines, also the Rice family and trying to compile stories of the 4 families, writes Mrs Lee M Davis, 61 Elm St, Springfield VT 05156.

Even though these records are not complete, I thought that just maybe someone reading "B&T" may have a connection & possibly help by sending some of the missing information. I have "A Genealogical Register of Edmund Rice Descendants" with the 2 accompanying books; the Putnam line back to 1086, but very incomplete for dates, etc...

My "Seth Putnam's" sister, Ann, daughter of Thomas and Ann Carr Putnam was responsible for the hanging of my early grandmother, Rebecca Towne Nourse! Am real proud of my background-- The Stevens boys were Green Mountain Boys-- I only go back to 1700 on that family to date. (Ed. note: Mrs Davis has submitted charts on these families for the Ancestry Service.)

Mr Alexis A Praus, director of the Kalamazoo Public Museum, 315 South Rose, Kalamazoo Mich 49006 has the following: Some time ago I acquired a silver cup with the following inscription:

Lucien Proctor, died in California Jan 25 1850

Issac Brown

Research has revealed that Proctor & Brown were from Proctorsville VT & that they went to Calif. during the Gold Rush of '49. Lucien died at the Mormon Island diggings. His remains were brought back by Brown, probably solered in a tin box filled with alcohol, for burial in Proctorsville. The cup was given, I am sure, to Brown in gratitude for his arduous task. Brown came to Kalamazoo in 1862 & died here in 1904.

I have lots of data on the Proctor & Brown families. What I am hoping to find is some contemporary newspaper accounts of the Proctor-Brown gold rush adventure & particularly on the return of Proctor's remains. Also letters & photographs may be hidden away somewhere in Vermont. I plan to write an article about the cup and its history.

Mrs Ruth H. Cope, R R ^{}1, Hudson, Ill. 61748 writes that she is willing to do any searching in her area if it will help anyone. She'll be glad to do what ever she can. She has access to McLean County records through the Bloomington-Normal Society.

Alvin E Montgomery, ^{}2270 Summit Drive, Hillsborough Calif 94010 has submitted his charts for the Ancestry Service column and writes: I have as complete data on all these lines as I have been able to obtain during a long period of years, and I will gladly correspond with any person interested.

Another member asks: ^{}Is there any known listing of the dead at Mt Independence? If so wouldn't "B&T" be a good place to print it?

(Ed. note: If any one has any such or similar list which they'd care to submit, we'd be most happy to print it in "Branches & Twigs".)

Mrs Betsy Langmuir, ^{}RFD #3, Putney Vt 05346 is looking for the book My Children's Ancestors by Roselle T Cross printed in Twinsburg, Ohio about 1912. It has a lot of Murdock history - Townsend, Newfane, Putney and Brookline etc. She's in it - the last to get in-pictures and all - as Elizabeth Murdock Cross. She is looking for extra copies if available anywhere.

FAMILY TREES (anonymous)

Family Trees are funny; time was when they were tended and pruned, all dead timber being carefully cut out; but now bare limbs are a common sight on even some of our oldest and best family trees.

Some of them produce a lot of peaches, and the same branch may also bear nuts. Many blossoms are found nestling in the leafy branches and perchance a few withered wall-flowers are found tucked away in sundry nooks.

Lemons are common on some of the trees; prunes and quinces also abound. Some of this fruit is easy picking and some of it has to be pretty well shaken before it will fall off.

You will find many little love nests tucked away in the branches of the old family tree, and also some pretty queer birds.

But everything considered, the family tree is a pretty good tree, and it is quite a calamity to fall out of it.

We are now exchanging ^{}quarterlies with many other genealogical & historical societies across America. Members may borrow these bulletins for a period of 2 weeks. At our spring meeting we discussed what the Genealogical Society of Vermont could do in observance of the state bicentennial. We would like to have members submit articles or anecdotes on an ancestor who was in Vermont during its early history. This material should not exceed 500 words. We hope that we can collect enough of these items and put them together in the form of a booklet which the GSV could offer for sale. The GSV Executive Board will review all contributions taking into consideration interest and relevancy.

Please send any "literary gem" you would like included in the bicentennial booklet to me--Mrs. A. G. Nichols, 46 Chestnut Street, Brattleboro, VT 05301.

As an example of what might be done, I have prepared the following. Noah⁴ Thompson (Barnabas³, Jacob², John¹) was one of my early ancestors who came to Vermont from Massachusetts. In preparing the article I have used excerpts from the Vermont Standard of Woodstock dated Jan. 16, 1873 (an obituary notice on Ovid Thompson, grandson to Noah and my great, great, grandfather), and from the Thomson Genealogy by Charles Hutchinson Thompson of Lansing, MI, published in 1890.

"Not far from the year 1795, Noah Thompson with his family of eight sons and two daughters moved from Halifax, Massachusetts to North Bridgewater and settled there. The farms which the different members of the family picked, adjoined for the most part, so that the occupants, taken together formed a snug colony of kindred united minds. Two of the sons, Abel and John, broke into the forest that swept over the top of Bridgewater Hill, settling on the track of a road laid out by Oliver Williams from Bridgewater across the hill towards Sherburne. This road, indeed, never made any progress beyond its first rude outline on the sides of the trees that were notched to mark its course. The two oldest sons, Barnabas and David divided between them a hundred acre lot, embracing the farms today occupied by Mr. Slocum and Mr. Paddock. Ovid Thompson, the third son of David Thompson, was born on the home farm August 27, 1805."

"At the commencement of the Revolutionary troubles, a man by the name of Taylor deserted the British army, and hired himself to his nearest neighbor. A British sergeant, with a file of men, came to take him; they arrived about mid-day. As the officer was entering the front door Taylor passed out the back way and escaped to a thick swamp. After a fruitless search they concluded Taylor was concealed in the neighboring house. Accordingly they entered Thomson's house, finding him at dinner; they demanded Taylor, threatening to shoot him if he did not comply. On this he laid down his knife and fork and opened the bosom of his shirt to the officer, who exclaimed, 'Deliver up Taylor or I will shoot you,' placing his hand to his pistol. 'Will you?' says Thomson, rising from the table and taking his gun which hung over his head, 'We will see who will get the first fire.' This brought the Britisher to his senses, 'I do not wish to harm you,' he said, 'all I want is Taylor.' 'Taylor is not in my house to my knowledge,' said Thomson. The officer replied, 'I shall search the house,' turning to the door of a room. 'Stop!' says the owner, 'I have no objection to your searching my house, but you must first ask my leave.' After the Revolution closed he settled with his family in the town of Bridgewater, in the state of Vermont. He was a justice of the peace, and died March 5, 1813. His wife died April 9, 1839, in her 89th year."

APPLE ORCHARD:

ANCESTRY SERVICE

Members wishing to be listed in the APPLE ORCHARD please follow these directions:

STEP 1 SURNAME LIST: Prepare an alphabetical list of all the surnames in your ancestry. Do not include sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles, etc. Just the surnames of your direct ancestors. This list will not be printed in "Branches & Twigs" but will be filed with the ancestry service committee, enabling them to know in advance how many members are working on a given surname.

STEP 2 ANCESTRY CHARTS: Begin with the first surname on your alphabetical list. Start with the ancestor closest to you and work backwards in time. Chart name, (Spouse's name in parentheses), birth place, birth date, marriage place, marriage date, death place, death date, member number. Please use year only also state or country only. Do not put the full date and place.

Repeat the process with each surname on your list.

All surnames first line will begin with a female name with the exception of a male members surname or a female members married name (your husband's surname). Use only maiden name for all females.

Do not include the other spouses of an ancestor. List only the spouse that is YOUR ancestor.

Give at least one date (birth, marriage, or death). Use a circa date, about 1700, early-mid-late 1600s, etc. if you don't have the correct date. This will help other members identify the person you are looking for as to when he or she lived.

Include ancestors who lived in 1600-1700-1800-1900. Do not list ancestors who died before 1600.

On the bottom of each sheet containing your charts, put your name, address including your zip code, and your membership number. (You will find this on your current membership card.)

Please TYPE if possible and send two copies to either Mrs Carol Church, Westminster West, RFD #3, Putney VT 05346 or to Mrs Mary Wooman, 402 Comet Drive, Hendersonville NC 28739. All records will be kept on file by Mrs Church.

You may want to make three copies, keeping one for yourself so you'll know what you have sent to us. Additional surnames or information may be sent to us anytime in the future. If you wish to correct a name, date, or place on charts already submitted, send us that surname only with information as it appears on charts we have, and underline the new information.

Your charts when completed, should look like the APPLE ORCHARD printed here.
