PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

If you didn't attend our fall meeting at the South Hero Congregational Church, you missed quite an event. At the annual business meeting, all the incumbent officers were re-elected for another two years. Jane Belcher, presented her Treasurer's Report and thanks to her hard work, and that of the rest of the GSV Board, the society is on very solid footing. A copy of the entire Treasurer's Report is on page 3. The three speakers—Jack Bilow, Tom McMurdo and John Duffy—were excellent and very interesting. The food served by the Women's Fellowship of the church was delicious and plentiful. The fall weather on the islands could not have been better. Diantha Howard and Stephanie M. O'Rourke both deserve a very large thank you for their help in the organization of the meeting. I think I can speak for everyone when I say that we all learned something and enjoyed ourselves immensely.

Sadly, another one of GSV's founders, Leo A. Fleury, died suddenly last August. I received an e-mail from his widow, Vera, just prior to our fall meeting. His obituary is on page 4. Mrs. Fleury has a set of GSV's original publication, Branches and Twigs, from Vol. 1: 1 (Winter 1972) through Vol. 22: 4 (Autumn 1993). If anyone is interested, they should contact her at (802)862-2941. The interested party will have to come to agreement with her on the price. This consists of almost the entire run of B & T and includes some of hard-to-find early issues in paper form. Also it came to my attention that Enoch H. Tompkins, GSV's first treasurer, died last spring. His obituary is also on page 4. It always sad to hear about the passing of any of our members.

In case you were wondering, GSV will not have a spring membership meeting in 2013. The Board once again has made the decision that we cannot organize a spring meeting and participate in NERGC at the same time. The Board is encouraging GSV members to attend NERGC in Manchester, N.H., April 17-21, 2013. Once again it will

DEATHS.

☞ Marriages and Deaths inserted FREE.

BURLINGTON - Leo A. Fleury, 81, died suddenly, early Monday morning, at his home in Burlington. He was born in Burlington, on Aug. 25, 1930, the son of Leo A. Fleury Sr. and Adeline (Dumas) Fleury. Leo graduated from Burlington High School in 1948. He began employment at the Burlington Savings Bank that fall and enlisted in the U.S. Air Force in 1952, spending two years on active duty before returning to the bank. In Dec. 1990, Leo retired from the Bank of Vermont as Vice-President and Archivist, after over forty years of service. From 1991 to 1996, he worked in customer service at the Shelburne branch of the Marble Bank. Leo married Vera A. Thomas on Oct. 18, 1958, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Burlington. Vera survives him along with their four children and their spouses, daughter, Suzanne and her husband, Douglas Dickie of Glen Allen, Va.; son, Thomas of Burlington; daughter, Katherine and her husband, William Bond of Bountiful, Utah; and son, Christopher and his wife, Michelle (Macken) of Falls Church, Va. Leo was also very proud of his seven grandchildren, Michael (Brother Clement, OP) Dickie, Matthew Dickie, Nicholas Bond, Kalie Bond, Kristen Bond, Timothy Fleury, and Elizabeth Fleury. Leo is also survived by a great-grandson, William Teeter. Leo also leaves an aunt, several nieces and nephews, and many cousins. Leo was predeceased by a sister, (Helen) Joyce Hayes; and a brother, Donald Fleury. He was also predeceased by an infant grandson, Christopher Bond. Leo had a long-time interest in local and regional history. He was a charter member of the Chittenden County Historical Society from its founding and served as its vice-president and then treasurer for many years. In retirement, he and Vera greatly enjoyed touring Vermont as part of the 251 Club and photographing covered bridges throughout the state. They also found much pleasure in traveling around the country and also abroad. He also had an avid interest in genealogy and family history, always being willing to help others research their family trees. Leo was a founding member of the Genealogical Society of Vermont and served in leadership roles in that organization for many years. Leo was awarded an honorary life membership in the GSV in recognition for his past service. He was also a founding member of the Vermont French Canadian Genealogical Society and served as a board member and newsletter editor for that organization. He was a member and chair of the Cemetery Commission for the city and also served as state treasurer for the United Negro College Fund and for the Friends of the Fletcher Free Library for many years. In retirement, Leo became a volunteer in the AARP Tax Aide Program, Meals on Wheels, Dismas House, the Fletcher Free Library, and the Heineberg Senior Center. In 2001, Leo and Vera became Mercy Associates and participated in many activities and ministries of the Sisters of Mercy. Leo served on the board of the Institute for Spiritual Development for several years. A wake in Leo's memory will be held on Friday, Aug. 24, 2012, from 4 to 8 p.m. at the Ready Funeral Home South Chapel, 261 Shelburne Rd., Burlington. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday (Leo's birthday) at 11 a.m. at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, 20 Pine St., in Burlington. Interment will follow in the Lakeview Cemetery in Burlington.

SHELBURNE-Enoch Harold Tompkins, 94, a longtime resident of Shelburne, died April 22, 2012, in The Arbors, in Shelburne, following a long illness. He was born June 13, 1917 in Mars Hill, Maine, the son of the late Almon H. and Nellie (Craig) Tompkins. He spent most of his youth in Blaine, Maine, graduating from the Aroostook Central Institute High School in 1936. In late 1940, he moved to Derby, Conn., where he was employed in area factories. He married Marie Sylvester, daughter of Louis and Theresa (DeLalla) Sylvester of Shelton on April 23, 1943. During WWII, Enoch served in the U.S. Army, ending his service in Japan with the 1346th Engineers Combat Battalion. Following the war, he attended the University of Connecticut, earning his Master's degree in Agricultural Economics in 1954. He was employed at the University of Vermont from then until 1976 as Assistant, then Associate Agricultural Economist. He later worked for and retired from the Vermont Job Service. An avid beekeeper for much of his life, he was a past president of the Eastern Apicultural Society and a secretary and president of the Vermont Beekeepers Association. He co-authored a book on beekeeping for Garden Way Publishing. Enoch also served as a Boy Scout leader in Burlington and 4-H leader in Shelburne, where he was involved with the town's cemetery commission and historical society. In retirement, he was an early member of Shelburne First Response and kept busy as an adoption and search consultant and member of the Adoption Alliance of Vermont. A true gentleman, his pleasant demeanor will be missed. Enoch is survived by son, Thomas and wife, Sara; daughter, Terri Price; and granddaughter, Savannah Price, all of Shelburne; and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his wife, Marie Tompkins, in 2008. Burial will be in the Shelburne Village Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

EDITOR WANTED

Vermont Genealogy, the semi-annual genealogical journal of the Genealogical Society of Vermont, seeks a new editor. This is a paid job and is open to any qualified person.

Qualifications we will look for in an editor include the following:

- Thorough acquaintance with style and format of good genealogical writing, including standards of documentation and citation.
- A good comfort level with electronic means of producing and transmitting copy from authors to editor to printer, and electronic preservation of data.
- A good understanding of Vermont's genealogical resources.
- Skill in encouraging high quality submissions to Vermont Genealogy, including previously unpublished primary source material, compiled genealogy, and discussions of new approaches to problem solving.
- Organizational skill to keep the publication schedule reasonably on target for two issues per year.

If you think you have a reasonable supply of these assets, contact the Publications chair:

John A. Leppman
20 Thwing Lane
Bellows Falls, Vermont 05101
john.a.leppman@dartmouth.edu

We would like to hear from you by February 1, 2013 at the latest.

Pictured at left is the gravestone of Colonel John Sergeant, the first person born in Vermont, or rather the first white male, born in what is now Vermont. The stone is located in Locust Ridge Cemetery in Brattleboro. The stone reads:

*Sacred to the Memory of Colo. JOHN SERGEANT Who Departed this life July 30th 1798 in the sixty sixth year of his Age / Who now lies in the same town he was Born & was the first person Born in the state of Vermont / to where this silent marble weeps, A friend A father & Husband sleeps, He gave them good Council, while he had his Breath, Advising them to prepare for Death. / Colo. held at the Radisson Hotel Manchester Downtown. We have provided some material on the conference in this issue of the Newsletter. Please feel free to contact me at stevens@vermontel.net if you have questions or to request a brochure. I look forward to seeing you there. You most probably will find me in the Exhibit Hall at the GSV booth. Stop by and maybe you will find the book you are looking for.

One final note: another great Vermont resource that has been recently added to www.Familysearch.org. "Vermont, Vital Records, 1760-2003" has appeared as non-indexed images. While most of the material 1760-1954 from the Vermont Vital Record Card Index is already online, this new addition has birth, marriage, civil unions, divorces and deaths, 1955 to 2003. The earlier dates reflect some delayed recorded events. After a few minutes and a little digging, I found some new information on my own family.

Happy Holidays and may your research be plentiful in the New Year.
